SOME THINGS SEEN ON PHIADELPHIA GRIDIRON TO-DAY.

Dane won't fight Terry McGoverr The $8,000 Philadelphia offer for six-round bout, with no decision athed, will not be considered by Nelon, so says Nolan. Nelson isn't willing o risk his title in a fight with Terry according, who has a real punch, unse he is sure of enough money to ske even losing profitable.

Perhaps Battling Neison needs the twenty thousand. There is a story floating around that the Dane intends to marry in the near future, and he will have to invest his surplus in furnishing a flat for the royal consort of the light-weight king to live in.

HE first of this season's big foot-ball games will be played in Philadelphia to-day between Harward and Pennsylvania.

Harvard has the heavier team and the more experienced players, most of her warriors having fought against Yale last year. Pennsylvania is lighter, greener, but faster.

Pennsylvania laws prohibit fighting where there is a gate fee charged. Yet two-thirds of the spectators to-day have gladly given up their twos and fives and ens for the privilege of seeing twentytwo men scrapping it out on the field at one time. The game will be a grudge nght, they say, for Harvard has been protesting Penn's best players, and the fishting Quakers feel anything but grateful. Look for the casualty list in The Evening World this afternoon, accompanied by all of the harrowing etails.

ALE will be making war maps and all sorts of notes on this game between Harvard and Penn. Pennsylvanja isn't of much interest up in New Haven, but Harvard is. Last year Yale had the easiest kind of a snap with the heavy Harvard team. Marriors from strolling through the Harvard line as / pleased. But this year, the rumor conform Cambridge, Harvard will be a different proposition

Battler Demands $20,000 Purse to Meet Terry, and This Is Impossible.

BY JOHN POLLOCK.

BY JOHN POILLOCK.

Thousands of admirers of pugilism, both in this vicinity and Philadelphia, who had expected to see Battling Nelson and Terry McGovern meet in a six-round bout in the quaker City next month may not get the shance of seeing these two siam-bang fighters try to put each other away. Nelson and his manager, Billy Noian, are responsible for the fight falling through, as they have announced that under mo circumstances will they consent to a match with McGovern unless they are guaranteed a purse of $20,000. This is more money than Matchmaker Jimmy Coffroth would offer Bob Fitzsimmons and "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien for their company-weight championship battle.
